

ELETTRA ROVATI

FLOWER THERAPIST

FLOWER THERAPY

Flower therapy is based on the concept that certain flowers have a unique energy and vibration that can resonate with our organism and rebalance it on an energetic and emotional level, acting in a profound way on disharmonious moods, to restore psychophysical health.

The flower therapist Elettra Rovati, through the skilful identification of the correct remedies, will create a personalized treatment plan providing emotional support and advice during the healing process.

The consultancy can be done in Italian and English

BACH FLOWER THERAPY
